Art Unit: 1654

1. Claims 1-1 are pending in this application.

2. (I) The rejection of claims 1-11 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 3-10 of U.S. Patent No.

5,293,772 has been maintained for reasons of record.

(II) The rejection of claims 1-11 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 5-9 of U.S. Patent No.

5,205,159 has been maintained for reasons of record.

(III) The rejection of claims 1-11 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 7-15 of U.S. Patent No.

4,986,964 has been maintained for reasons of record.

3. Applicant's arguments filed October 4, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

At page 4 of the "REMARKS" submitted October 4, 2004, applicants have argued that "[The references describe a machine, and methodology for making measurements pioneered by the present inventor. However, the undersigned notes that there is no "overlap" as indicated by the Examiner.]. It is noted that each rejection of the claims under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting has been maintained for the reasons given below.

Art Unit: 1654

(1) All the inventions claimed use the same active method step which measures clot elastic modulus and/or platelet contractile force.

(2) All the methods claimed in the inventions require measurement of a control or standard to compare to the values obtained from a patient with atherosclerosis or identifying patients at risk of bleeding.

(3) All the inventions disclose or address a treatment or monitoring method wherein a measurement on the blood sample is selectively determined by platelet contractile force or clot elastic modulus.

Further, it is noted that the statute states "The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b)."

To date applicants have not submitted a timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) to overcome the obviousness-type double patenting rejections of the instant claims.

For the reasons given above the rejections of the claims have been maintained.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
